Golden Anniversary Celebration

Mr. and Mrs. Littleton Lucado were honored with a reception on Sunday P. M. December 11th at the home of their son, Basil J. Lucado, Route 3, Appomattox, Va. in celebration of their Golden Wedding Anniversary.

Many friends and relatives called during the afternoon. The entire family, with the exception of one granddaughter, Mrs. Claude Thompson, of Lynchburg, and one great granddaughter, Brenda Lee Thompson, were present.

The couple were married December 7, 1910, by Rev. R. B. Blankenship.

Rocks

Rocks, Dec. 19.- The cold days the past week have been ideal for hog killing on the farms, with neighbors helping to get the job done.

A large crowd attended the Christmas pla, "In the Shepherd's Field," presented at Rocks Church on Decembe r18, at 7:30.

"And the Angel said unto them, Fear not, for behold I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all the people. For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Savior which is Christ The Lord." Luke 2 10-11

Everyone is looking forward to Christmas, the greatest of all birthdays and the greatest of all gifts to the people, and may we witness for Him by helping send the Gospel to all Nations.

There will be many happy homes and many sad ones. A year brings many changes.

We surely are having a cold spell of weather.

Visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Harvey on Sunday were Mr. Willis Carter, Mr. North Robertson, Mr. and Mrs. Richad Carson and Sylvia, Mrs. Eva Hayden and Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Harvey.

I do hope that there will be no wrecks on the highway when its so much traffic.

Wishing all of our readers A Merry Christmas and A Happy New Year!
